DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office action is in response to the reply filed on April 9, 2008.
2. New claims 18 through 25 are the only claims remaining in the case.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims filed on April 9, 2008 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection presented herein.

Oath/Declaration

4. Receipt of the declaration filed on April 9, 2008 is hereby acknowledged.
5. The oath or declaration filed on April 9, 2008 is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:
Non-initialed and/or non-dated alterations have been made to the oath or declaration (relative to the information corresponding to the seventh joint inventor). See 37 CFR 1.52(c).

Specification

6. Receipt and entry of the amended abstract is hereby acknowledged.
7. The amended abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is written in a run-on fashion and thus fails to clearly summarize the inventive apparatus and method. For example, it is not clear whether "a system is provided" as cited in line 4 of the abstract refers to the same system as "A system" in line 1 of the abstract or to a separate system. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

8. Claims 19 through 23 and 25 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claims, or amend the claims to place the claims in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claims in independent form. Each of claims 19 through 23 and 25 depends on a cancelled claim.

9. Claims 18 and 24 are objected to because of the following informalities: the comma (,) immediately following “at least one component” [claim 18, line 8; claim 24, line 8] should be deleted for improved readability. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

10. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

11. Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The preamble of claim 24 is drawn to a method, but the body of the claim merely recites various structural elements of an apparatus and fails to recite any method steps at all. The claim fails to constitute either a proper method claim or a proper apparatus claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

12. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

13. Claims 18 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With regard to claim 18 as written, it is not clear which disclosed elements correspond to the means plus function limitation “means for transferring said waste heat from said at least one component to said coolant in said coolant circuit”. Also, applicant has failed to properly disclose the equivalents readable thereon, thus further rendering indefinite the metes and bounds of protection sought by the claim.

Art Unit: 3744

Claim 24 provides for the use of a portion of a vehicle, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 24 is also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

14. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Art Unit: 3744

15. As best can be understood in view of the indefiniteness the claims, claims 18 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hohl et al.

Hohl et al. discloses a system for regulating the heat balance of a motor vehicle and a method of using the same, including, for example: an engine 22 comprising a cylinder head 21; a coolant circuit for dissipating heat generated in the engine 22, the coolant circuit comprising at least one coolant pump 30, a cooler 10, a heating circuit including heating heat exchanger 35 for heating the passenger compartment of the vehicle, and a cooling circuit including coolant-to-air cooler 10; at least one component 70 or 80 which produces waste heat; and, a cooler segment 15 readable on the means for transferring the waste heat from the at least one component 70 or 80 to the coolant in the coolant circuit.

The reference thus reads on the claims.

Conclusion

16. The additional prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

17. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
